We haven't crossed all of the t's nor dotted all of the i's yet, nor spell-checked, so don't go making your reservations quite yet...but, soon, really soon, you should make your plans to spend the end of June, 2020 in Ann Arbor, MI. It's shaping up to be a great Wayzgoose. The Ann Arbor District Library has held their own wayzgoose the past two years; this year they've agreed to combine theirs with ours. Downstairs in the library is the Secret Lab and in the Secret Lab is a growing and flourishing letterpress printshop. We're planning on some hands-on workshops, some talks and demonstrations, some printshop visits, some mentoring, a huge sale and auction, letterpress displays, a gallery opening, and lots of chances to talk and socialize. And a Banquet. The Library will be holding some parallel events for their patrons and we're also invited and their people may be joining us.

There is some possibility that presenters and workshop leaders will receive an honorarium. If you have an idea for a 45 minute presentation or workshop, send the idea to Arie Koelewyn (koelewyn@msu.edu).

More information to come as details are settled. Watch this space...
